

LOST:—AN INTEREST IN CHESS

Flinder May Make Himself Known to Some of the "Old Boys."

Most persons have stopped playing chess, at least to the extent it used to be played. Is it because they are too busy watching the kings and queens and pawns check and slay each other on the great chess board across the Atlantic, or is it just because we are not any longer simple minded enough to enjoy the little things. Prof. Louis Ingold, of the department of mathematics, himself a proficient chess player, suggests that the reason for the decline of chess playing may lie in the fact that it is an indoor game and does not supply the exercise demanded. Also, there may be some truth in what John Burroughs once said: "This is a lesson that the American has yet to learn—the capability of Get Professor Ingold tilted comfortably back in his office chair, and he will tell you about the popularity of chess back in 1901, when he was a student in the University. The students played extensively, and B. M. ("Mac") Anderson was president of the chess club which they organized. After they had promised to be careful with the furniture, they were allowed to meet in Academic Hall. If there had been any evidence of their presence on the morning after, they would no doubt have been checked!

Tournaments were held. The Rev. H. L. Horton, Judge John D. Lawson and Captain Sam Smoke were some of the older "boys" who played. Professor Ingold names C. B. Rollins, Sr., as one of the best chess players of the present time in Columbia. Other fans are Dr. R. H. Baker, Dr. T. Gentry, Dr. W. W. Elwang and J. S. Clarkson.

Columbia on December 13, when Charles Norton Hunt, lecturer for the Northern Pacific Railway, will deliver a travelogue on the Yellowstone National Park in the University Auditorium. Mr. Hunt comes to Columbia as one of the University Assembly lecturers. Mr. Hunt delivered the same travelogue here last year, being heard by a large audience. The scenic features of the national park are vividly described in the travelogue. According to Mr. Hunt, the multitude of colors that prevail in this wonderland must be seen to be appreciated. Mountain scenery, geysers, lakes and wild animals are the features that stand out most prominently in the minds of the tourists who have visited Yellowstone Park. Thousands of animals, such as deer, elk, antelope, bear, buffalo and mountain sheep, make the park their habitual abode and are protected by the government.

The Morning Glory Springs, a highly colored hot water basin, is another feature that proves especially interesting to tourists. Various points of interest are illustrated with colored stereoscopic slides. Geysers in action and other views will be shown by motion pictures.

By United Press

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 24.—Lean greyhounds of the Atlantic fleet—destroyers and bobbing Government coastal cutters—vessels of every kind and character will assemble in Hampton Roads the second week of December on the occasion of the annual convention of the Southern Commercial Congress, at Norfolk, Va. The gathering will present one of the most impressive grand ensembles of naval vessels since the mobilization of the American fleet for the trip around the world. The entire Atlantic fleet has been ordered mobilized for the ceremonies, by Secretary Daniels, and the Department of Commerce and Labor, have given similar orders for all vessels of their departments.

The officers and men of the fleet, with the Virginia national guard will participate in a military parade, Sunday, preceding the formal opening of the Congress. The fleet, together with all visiting ships, will pass in a grand naval review earlier in the day.

President Wilson has been requested to address the congress on Monday morning. Secretary of State Lansing will speak Monday.

The Y. W. C. A. will hold special vesper services at the Missouri Union Building from 4 to 5 o'clock every Sunday afternoon, beginning December 3. J. Robert Hall Will Also Collect Data for Agricultural Bulletin.

J. Robert Hall, a student in the College of Agriculture, left Friday afternoon for Montrose, Ia., to give a talk to the Montrose Farmers' Exchange on "Co-operative Plans for Farmers' Exchanges." Mr. Hall will also collect data for a bulletin to be issued during Farmers' Week by the College of Agriculture.

Co-operation among farmers in Iowa has been much more successful than it is in Missouri, according to Mr. Hall. If Missouri farmers take advantage of the bulletin to be issued, they can buy their grain from Iowans without paying the middleman's profit and without paying for the extra transportation charges made necessary by the middleman, according to Mr. Hall.

THE STATE OF MISSOURI, to the above named unknown defendants, GREETING:

Now on this 11th day of November, 1916, in vacation before the Circuit Court of Boone County, Missouri, by his attorney, and files his petition in suit herein, duly verified by the affidavit of C. Anderson, agent and attorney for the plaintiff, and in said petition states that there are, as he verily believes, persons interested in or claiming an interest in the subject matter of this suit as the unknown consorts, heirs, devisees, donees, assignees, or immediate, remote, voluntary or involuntary grantees of Thomas Hadden, deceased; of John D. Hadden, deceased; of Elizabeth Crittenden, deceased; of Mary McKelway, deceased; of Edward C. Cabell, deceased; of Anna Maria Cabell, deceased; of John McKelway, deceased; of Isabella McKelway, deceased; of Alexander J. McKelway, deceased; of Mary Ann McKelway, deceased; of the unknown endorsee, assignee, consorts, heirs, devisees, donees, assignees, or immediate, remote, voluntary or involuntary grantees of John F. Burnam, deceased; of John D. Hadden, deceased; of Elizabeth Ashley, deceased, and of each of them, and of each of them respectively, through and by virtue of the following facts and defects in the record title thereto, to-wit: That Thomas Hadden acquired title to Lot One Hundred and twenty-four, hereinafter described, on the 21st day of April, 1830, under and by virtue of a warranty deed of that date duly recorded in Book C page 305 of the deed records of Boone County, Missouri, but it nowhere appears of record that said Thomas Hadden ever parted with or conveyed his said title to said real estate.

That Mary Hadden on August 30, 1847, being in possession of the west half of Lot 174 and claiming to own an undivided one-third interest in and to the west one-half of said lot, did on said date convey the same by warranty deed to Thomas E. Power, which said deed appears of record in Book R at page 59 of said deed records, but that it does not appear from said deed whether or not the said Mary Hadden was single or married.

That on the 9th day of March, 1850, John D. Hadden being in possession of the west one-half of said Lot One Hundred and twenty-four and claiming to own an undivided one-third interest in and to the same, did on said date convey said interest in said Lot by warranty deed to Thomas E. Power, which said deed appears of record in Book T at page 35 of said deed records, but that it does not appear from said deed whether the said John D. Hadden was single or married.

That on the 16th day of January, 1860, Thomas E. Power being in the possession of the west one-half of said Lot 174 and claiming to own an undivided one-third interest in said lot, did on said date convey the same to Thomas E. Power, which said deed appears of record in Book 34, page 227, of said deed records, but it nowhere appears in said deed whether or not the said Thomas E. Power was single or married.

That on the 22nd day of September, 1853, John J. Crittenden and Elizabeth, his wife; Andrew McKinley and Mary, his wife; Edward C. Cabell and Anna Maria, his wife, being the owners and in possession of all the land hereinafter described, attempted and intended to convey a part of said lands by deed to one John McKelway, which said deed appears of record in Book V at page 631 of said deed records, but that the description in said deed was too indefinite to pass the title to said real estate.

That on the 13th day of March, 1849, John McKelway and Isabella, his wife, being in possession of said lands and claiming to own the same attempted and intended to convey a part of said real estate to Alexander J. McKelway by deed of that date, which said deed appears of record in Book "S" page 144 of said deed records, but that the description in said deed was too indefinite to pass the title to said real estate.

That on the 21st day of May, 1849, Alexander J. McKelway and Isabella, his wife, being in possession of said lands and claiming to own the same attempted and intended to convey a part of said lands to one Richard Crouwell by deed of that date, which said deed appears of record in Book "S" page 145; but that the description contained in said deed was too indefinite to pass title to said real estate.

That on the 15th day of July, 1851, Elizabeth Ashley being in the possession of said lands, conveyed a part of said lands by deed to one Thomas E. Powers, which said deed appears of record in Book "U" at page 58 of said deed records of Boone County, Missouri, but that it does not appear in said deed whether or not the said Elizabeth Ashley was single or married at the time of executing the same.

That on the 26th day of August, 1879, Frank Horan and Elizabeth, his wife, being the owners and in possession of said lands, conveyed the same to Robert L. Todd, in trust to secure the payment to John F. Burnam of a certain promissory note in full of trust described, which said deed of trust appears of record in Book 16, page 225 of the deed records of Boone County, Missouri; that thereafter the said Frank Horan fully paid and discharged said indebtedness, and afterwards, to-wit on February 5, 1880 here appears an attempted release on the margin of the record of said deed of trust which purports to be the release of the said John F. Burnam, but that said release was not properly attested as required by law.

And plaintiff further states that the said Thomas Hadden, John D. Hadden, Elizabeth Crittenden, Andrew McKinley, Mary McKinley, Edward C. Cabell, Anna Maria Cabell, John McKelway, Isabella McKelway, Alexander J. McKelway, Mary Ann McKelway, John F. Burnam, Mary Hadden, John D. Hadden, Thomas E. Orear and Elizabeth Ashley are all now long since deceased, as he is informed and believes.

It is therefore ordered by the Clerk of said court, in vacation, that the said defendants be and appear in this court, on the first day of the next term thereof, to be held at the Court House in the City of Columbia, Boone County, Missouri, on Monday, January 1st, 1917, to answer or plead to said petition, or in default thereof said petition will be taken as confessed and judgment will be rendered against them, in accordance with the prayer of plaintiff's petition.

It is further ordered that a copy hereof be duly published at least once a week for four weeks successively in the Daily Missourian, a daily newspaper printed, published and circulated in said Boone County, and designated by plaintiff's attorney as most likely to give notice of said defendants; the last insertion of said order of publication in said newspaper to be at least fifteen days before the first day of said next term of said court.

A true copy from the record:

WITNESS my hand as Clerk of the Circuit Court of Boone County, Missouri, and the seal of said Court, Done at office in Columbia, Missouri, this 11th day of November, 1916.
